Simon Mæng: Various savings make it problematic since those who have been involved in the teaching are some of the things that go beyond. It goes beyond the quality.

Kristian and Niklas: It is reviewed how the study rooms are terminated everywhere in society and hum.

Cecilie: It is explained about eg PBL and the group room problem.

Uffe: Asks about how it affects the individual voice of the students.

Niklas: explains how one doesn't see each other which makes a sense of community is "the hassle of creating"

Kristian: The academic foundation is also threatened.

from the Political spokesperson

There has been a general meeting of the Student Society. Kenneth Frøsig was elected as Student Political Rapporteur from mid-April. Kenneth wants to make it easier for students to get involved in student forums, and to hold a few extraordinary student forums where specific treatments can be treated.

Involvement of several of the locals at uni.

Still new: Tommy Ahlers and Lars Løkke were at AAU on Thursday. Not very involved. If it has to be done again, it may need to be rethought.

5. Political conference in Copenhagen during the weekend [18: 00-18: 30] (OD)

The Student Union has had a delegation on the weekend. We got a paper on Studiejob. The student community won the owl. The paper was controversial and several student organizations (roskilde, Aarhus and CBS) voted against the paper in whole or in part.

There were several workshops on sustainability, communication, well-being and national elections.

It has been a little frustrating with the mandate, as there were no attitudes to base it on at this point.

Invitation from Cecilie: Several policy papers must be made. Like about well-being and sustainability.

From Jacob sabber: Consideration should be given to whether it is best to make policy papers

We had a social delegation in this regard. It was good. Recommended for the future. It was vegetarian throughout the weekend.

A political conference must be made in Aalborg in November.

Lene Werner, Niklas Antonisen, Jakob Sabber, Mick Sholtberg has joined the planning group for the next policy conference. Simon also reports as a knowledge tank that Obel is interested in.

6. How to improve student politics in the student society [18: 00-20: 30] (ODB)

Motivator: Emil Njor

At the last Student Forum we decided to spend this day thinking about what we could do to improve the way that student politics works in the student society. A lot of the talk has been about a more dedicated political group which can support the political spokesperson in his / her day to day work. Any other ideas are of course welcome as well!

Simon summarizes from the topic at the last general meeting.

Kristian points out that the problem is that it is difficult to tell what "student policy" is.

StudenterSamfundet

Aalborg Universitet

Emil proposes to divide student policy into topics such as local politics at the university to explain to new ones. Emil thinks that a political body should be able to make campaigns, support the rapporteur, develop the policy through student forum.

Mick points out that it is important that the policy reaches out to ordinary students.

Simon points out that it is crucial to make contact with the Student Union Board of Directors.

Sabber thinks that one can gather people who want to work in what can define themselves from there.

Kristian, how do people get into student policy?

People share stories.

It is emphasized that the benefits of being a student politician are that you get an overview and just like sitting on the "skeleton" of the university.

One suggestion is to send recruitment and info out also in the spring.

Now for the practical.

Mick suggests that we set up a working group that looks at it and defines it further.

Laura focuses on how to choose such a group. GF, student forum just volunteer.

Sabber proposes Student Forum as an approach.

Mick: People should definitely be chosen for this. Perhaps not to the working group, but to what it must end.

Kenneth: Thinking of open positions that can be run in via student forum.

Simon: Choices at gf or some higher authority are needed to give the substance needed.

Obel: Suggest that you can get people through to GF and then possibly supplement by drop-out at student forum. Possibly let the student forum representatives be approved by member meeting / gf.

Simon: A working night may be the answer.

Sabber: Important that the body is not super separate with the rest of the organization.

Where should it be? The rapporteur? Student Forum? GF? Board of Directors?

Possible areas for a policy support body:

- Develop Policy. Write policy papers approved by student forum.
- Information Coordination
- Upgrading of selected people
- campaigns
- Mayor support.
- Holder for various working groups. Important that people can be involved in various areas for a time.
- It is proposed that faculty managers in the group.

Choose a business day.

Summarized:

A working day is made. One invites invited and local. On the day you summarize the topic. You use 3-4 hours to get it concrete, then get it presented by the next gf.
